

Ignition Random Acts Networks Centre SPARK FIRST ACTS Short Film Scheme 2017 – Call 1 How To Apply

Application Deadline:
5pm, Monday 24th April 2017

The Ignition Random Acts Network 2017 short film programme has been created by Arts Council England in association with Channel 4, Random Acts/ First Acts with the sole purpose of discovering emerging bold and creatively expressive filmmaking talent.

Managed by Screen South and Executively Produced by Fly Film, The Ignition Network Random Acts SPARK short film programme is open to all young people, aged between 16 - 24 who are resident, working or studying in the Arts Council South East Region.

We are seeking short film ideas with an original innovative expression of creativity. You can be challenging and bold in your approach or single minded and evocative. We are looking for films that surprise us or are thought provoking and engaging. We want to hear new voices and see visual story telling that is exciting and memorable using diverse art forms such as dance, comedy, spoken word, poetry, digital arts and performance. Random Acts offer a broad canvas and it is entirely up to you what you choose to focus on. Have a look at the Random Acts Website for inspiration and try and come up with new ideas that are not necessarily being presented yet. www.randomacts.channel4.com/.

1. Random Acts SPARK - Bold Expressions of Creativity

- 1.1. The Ignition Random Acts SPARK FIRST ACTS Short Film Scheme 2017 is an opportunity to present a short film idea of which has bold, fresh, imaginative and vibrant creative vision.
- 1.2. The Ignition Random Acts Commissioners will be looking for a range of young creative talent with strong ideas drawn from diverse art forms: from dance, visual arts, comedy, poetry, spoken word and video arts in order to create stunning new short films.
- 1.3. The Ignition Network has a strong commitment to supporting work from groups that are currently underrepresented on screen, and particularly welcome applications from those with a black, minority or ethnic background and people with a disability.
- 1.4. We will be selecting up to 12 films for Call 1, SPARK FIRST ACTS Short Film Scheme 2017, deadline Monday 24th April at 5pm. There will be a further deadline in the autumn when we will select a further 6 films.
